

GLASS CAMP

Glass

Detectives

Kids, ages 9–12, can explore the world of glass from a detective’s point of view, sleuthing their way through the collections, discovering how glass is made, and looking for clues that tell them more about glassmaking cultures from around the world.

When July 12–16, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Where: The Corning Museum of Glass, Rakow Library Seminar Room

Cost: $75

Registration: Reservations are required. Space is limited.

Contact: Bonnie Wright at wrightbl@cmog.org or 607.974.4292.

Registration Form

Reservations must be accompanied by full payment. Please enclose a check, payable to The Corning Museum of Glass, or call with credit card information. You will receive confirmation and additional details after registration is complete.

Adult’s Name _____

Child’s Name _____ Age _____

Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Please detach the bottom portion of this flyer and return to:

The Corning Museum of Glass Education Department
Attention: Bonnie Wright
1 Museum Way, Corning, NY 14830

