

Blow Glass at Sea!

Glassblowers Needed

Are you a hardworking, articulate, friendly, expert glassblower? Come work with the best!

The Corning Museum of Glass has launched its Hot Glass Show aboard Celebrity Cruises and is looking for Narrator/Demonstrators to join the team.

Narrator/Demonstrators provide live, narrated hot glassblowing demonstrations on Celebrity Cruises.

Responsibilities include:

- Live and work on board a Celebrity Solstice-class ship for three months at a time
- Produce well-crafted glass objects to demonstrate traditional and contemporary techniques for audiences of all ages
- Narrate for other glassblowers, clearly articulating the process while engaging the audience and assisting the glassblower
- Set up work area and maintain operation and safety of equipment

All artists must pass a mandatory physical exam, drug test, and background check, have a valid passport; travel well and maintain a professional demeanor and appearance on and off duty at all times; and work well in a team environment.

For more information and a full list of requirements, visit www.cmog.org/atsea or contact Human Resources at 607.438.5267 or employment@cmog.org.

www.cmog.org

