

Blow Glass at Sea
Demonstrator/Narrator
Celebrity Cruises

Responsibilities include but are not limited to the following:

Demonstrator

- Produces well-crafted glass objects to demonstrate traditional and contemporary techniques for all audiences. Maintains a varied portfolio which meets the required standards. Expands the portfolio.
- In the absence of the Team Leader, is responsible for the set-up, pace and quality of the show.
- Supervises flexible show schedule. Coordinates movements of all personnel on stage.
- Responsible for set/up and teardown of any needed equipment and/or materials.

Narrator

- Clearly articulates an accurate and engaging narration of the glassblowing process to all audiences.
- Assists the demonstrator in making blown glass objects to the demonstrator's standards.
- Modifies narration to address requirements for specific groups as needed.
- Interacts with audience; answers questions when on stage and off.

General

- Sets up work area, selecting and preparing irons, blocks, tools and equipment as needed.
- Ensures that the furnaces, annealers, and glory hole are in good operating order.
- Performs routine housekeeping during and after each performance to maintain orderly appearance of work area and stage.
- Monitors glass and supplies required for demonstrations.
- Complies with all CMOG and Celebrity safety procedures, practices and rules, including wearing safety equipment, close-toed shoes, etc.
- Adheres to CMOG and Celebrity dress standards.
- Meets CMOG standards regarding demeanor, professionalism, appearance, work ethic, etc.
- Communicates regularly with Team Leader, whether onboard ship or remotely via conference call.

General Requirements:

- Ability to create excellent quality and wide variety of glass objects quickly to required standards.
- Excellent interpersonal and customer service skills; professional presentation and demeanor.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Ability to work and speak in front of large groups of people.
- Must be fluent in oral and written English.
- Ability to pass a drug and background test.
- Current passport or ability to obtain a passport and proper visas as necessary.
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs.
- Ability to train in Corning, New York.
- Ability to travel to remote locations, live on board a cruise ship for three months or more, seven days per week, and work flexible hours.

Note: Artists work on a contract basis and are not employees of The Corning Museum of Glass