ALFORD CUT GLASS

THE showing of  cut glass in our catalogue is about as complete and comprehensive as anyone could possibly desire—it covers practically every need and requirement.

You can show this glass to anyone with full assurance that it is beyond doubt as fine in cut, finish and design as any on the market and better priced than any other cut glass of equal merit.

The catalogue is arranged to show the different sizes in which the various pieces are made, and under each illustration is a blank space, wherein you can write the exact price at which you will sell the article.

Some objection was made to the method used in last year's catalogue, by which the glass was priced at 50% off from the figures quoted, since it caused embarrassment when the dealer showed the catalogue to a prospective customer and the 50% discount became apparent.

For that reason we have made a radical departure this year. We quote prices in this confidential list only, and these prices give the absolute net cost of each piece to you, subject to no discount whatever; our terms being net, 60 days.

To further aid you in quoting prices to your trade, as well as in ordering from us, each piece shown in the catalogue is numbered and its number and number of the catalogue page on which it appears are printed opposite the name of the article in the price list.

Thus the price of any article can be found instantly, and, if ordered by number, we can make no mistake as to the exact piece and pattern wanted.

RELATIVE TO SHIPMENTS

Unless we are instructed otherwise, all stock orders, including the assortments A, B and C, will be shipped by freight, f. o. b. Honesdale, Pa.

In the case of small orders—sales made by means of the catalogue, we earnestly advise that you instruct us to ship by express, as the charges will be about the same either way and you will be assured prompt delivery.

When making a sale of anything from the catalogue for a birthday, wedding or other gift and it is imperative that it be delivered at a specified time, we would advise you to urge your customer to make a second and even a third selection, in case it should happen that the article selected first should be out of stock at the time.

While there is very little doubt that we would be able to immediately supply the wanted article, this course would entirely obviate any delay and effectually prevent any disappointment or dissatisfaction—an important consideration, as your customer will be apt to expect delivery on the exact date specified.

We have constantly on hand a large stock of all pieces comprised in assortments A, B and C, and orders for either assortment may confidently be expected to be filled on the day of receipt. Other goods will be shipped in about a week from the time order is received.

FREE SELLING HELPS

It is not necessary for us to dwell on the value of newspaper advertising—nor need we tell you that it is essential that your advertisements should be as attractive as you can possibly make them. You doubtless realize this as fully as we do.

There are two difficulties which meet the average busy dealer when he sets out to prepare his advertisements. One is the lack of time—at just the right time—to write his advertising story as he would like to have it written, and the other is the difficulty in obtaining good illustrations that illustrate.

115836

We are prepared to help you in both these directions. We have had prepared especially for your use a series of artistic, eye-catching illustrations and appropriate advertising text to be used with them.

These are shown on the two pages following. They are for you to use freely in any space you wish—either as complete advertisements or with the addition of any matter you may care to insert.

These ready-to-use illustrations and the accompanying matter will furnish you with strong, well-written advertisements that will not only sell cut glass for you, but they will serve to make your advertising distinctive—draw attention to your store and advertise your business in a general way.

There is nothing which you carry that can be advertised so attractively as cut glass—and nothing that will pay you better to advertise.

With good illustrations and copy furnished free, you can advertise your line effectively and economically—saving much time, trouble and expense in the preparation of your advertisements.

We will supply you free any or all of these cuts upon receipt of your request.

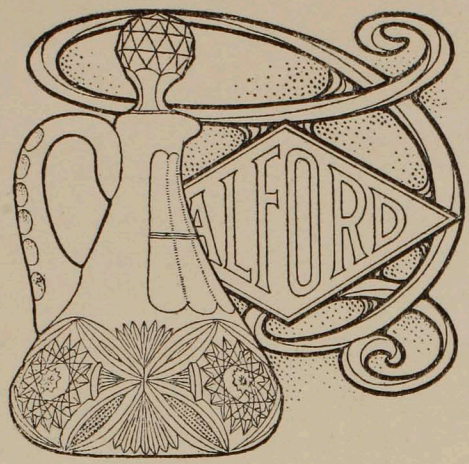

Herewith you will find a blank requisition for them, which, if you will fill out, sign and mail to us in the enclosed addressed envelope, will insure your getting the cuts without delay.

“THE GIFT IDEAL”

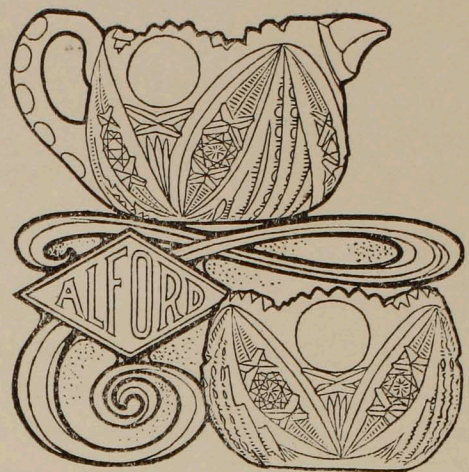

An even more important and valuable selling help and which is also free, is furnished by the handsome booklets, entitled “The Gift Ideal,” we have prepared for you, and of which you may have any reasonable number, with your name printed on the cover, together with envelopes in which to mail them.

If you have not yet sent us a request for your share of these booklets we strongly urge you to do so at once—before the first edition is exhausted. There is no question whatever about the beneficial results they would produce—the actual sales they would make for you.

ADVERTISING COPY TO BE USED WITH THE ILLUSTRATIONS SHOWN ON THE OPPOSITE PAGE

Whatever you want in cut glass for the table or the sideboard, for practical use or for decorative purposes, our stock of fine glass will supply. No better or finer cut or more brilliant glass, or prettier patterns to be had anywhere.

* * *

We have gifts in fine cut glass suitable for anybody, appropriate for any occasion. Gifts rich and costly as any one can want, others modest in price, yet exquisitely dainty, and a wide range of choice in between.

Those we mention will give an idea of the variety of the price range.

(Name articles and prices below.)

* * *

The judging of fine cut glass, like the judging of diamonds, demands an expert knowledge of cutting and "color." Whether or not you are an expert you may buy cut glass here safely. Our stock comprises only the finest clear crystal glass, the latest patterns, and the most approved shapes. The cuttings are deep and brilliant and not a piece in the entire assortment is "off color."

A short list that will give you an idea of the great variety:

* * *

Beauty and fitness are the chief things to consider when selecting cut glass for gifts. The most beautiful glass that is cut anywhere is here, and the variety is so great you'll have no trouble to find the right thing to serve any use, to fit any one's need or taste.

* * *

Cut glass is more in demand each year and our stock keeps abreast of the demand always. It embraces the latest shapes and patterns in a very wide variety of pieces of the most beautiful and finest cut crystal glass that is made. The following list is merely suggestive:

(Name articles and prices below.)

* * *

What more beautiful or more appropriate for table use than cut glass?

We'd like to have you see the sparkling array of exquisite, richly cut bowls, jugs, trays, plates, decanters, tumblers, etc. that we are showing. Many beautiful pieces for toilet and other uses as well—and prices are reasonable for all.

If you want the finest cut glass you must pay a fair price for it. Ours is the finest glass made, and our prices are fair—never exorbitant.

Judge our stock by these items:

(Name articles and prices below.)

* * *

If you are contemplating the purchase of a gift for somebody, why not a piece of cut glass?

Our stock offers a broad variety of objects from which you may select a suitable and pleasing gift for any one.

Here are a few articles taken at random from a list too long to print in full:

A handsome piece of cut glass is an ideal gift, whose beauty time cannot dim or tarnish.

There are scores of such gifts here—artistically beautiful in form and design, exquisitely cut and widely varied in their uses.

These examples will show how low our prices are—for first quality glass:

(Name articles and prices below.)

* * *

For a bridal gift you can choose nothing that will be more sure to please than fine cut glass.

It will give us pleasure to show you the many beautiful pieces in our stock and to suggest an appropriate selection—should you be in doubt about the right object to give. Everything in cut glass for toilet, table and decorative uses is here. Some timely suggestions:

* * *

The shapes and designs of the cut glass we sell may be copied in cheap glass, but the rich brilliancy of the cuttings and the "color" can't be imitated. Put a piece of our glass beside one of a cheaper grade and you'll see this instantly. We've about everything in cut glass that you may want—here's a hint of the variety:

* * *

There are many grades of cut glass as of everything else—as many grades of cutting as of any other kind of work. We have but one grade of either—the best; a comparison of ours with any other stock will prove it.

A WORD OF OUR SPECIAL ASSORTMENTS

Following is the net price list of the  Cut Glass shown in our 1904 catalogue and which includes the special assortments A, B and C.

These assortments which, in our judgment, comprise the best combination of styles and patterns that can be made up, we have prepared for the convenience of those of our customers who do not find it advisable to place an initial order for the complete line.

The prices of these combinations are $50, $80 and $125, respectively, and as you can see by the lists on the opposite page, each assortment is a practical one.

It comprises the sort of goods that are most likely to be called for and the readiest selling patterns.

Many of the pieces included in assortments A and B are illustrated in "The Gift Ideal," the booklet of which we have told you, while assortment C includes all of the pieces shown in the booklet, and on that account it is advisable to order it in preference to either of the others.

For then you will be able to show readers of the booklet any pieces that may have caught their fancy and clinch many sales that would not perhaps be consummated if you could not show the actual article.
